

K-Love, at 88.5 thru FM translator service, is a positive and uplifting station in this rural San Luis Obispo County, that has supported and encouraged me thru my listening, thru my divorce this past year. It is a station that my grandchildren can listen to without fear of negativeness, commercial advertising, godlessness and violence. It supports high moral values in a time when the world has gone crazy.